

REGULATIONS NOT HARMONISED AT EUROPEAN LEVEL

BARBECUES BURNING SOLID FUELS

SCOPE

Barbecue means an appliance designed for outdoor food cooking, using heat radiation or possibly convection, including at least the following components: a pit, a grill or a rotating spit.

FRENCH REGULATIONS

- Decree No 2006-18 of 4 January 2006 on the safety of solid-fuel barbecues

STANDARDS CONFERING A PRESUMPTION OF CONFORMITY

- List published by Communication in the JORF of 1 March 2006

CONTACTS

➤ AUTHORITY RESPONSIBLE FOR REGULATIONS

- Ministère de l'économie et des finances (Ministry for the Economy and Finance) :

- DGCCRF – Bureau des produits industriels 5A – bureau-5a@dgccrf.finances.gouv.fr

➤ BODIES ACCREDITED TO CONDUCT TYPE EXAMINATIONS

Certificates of conformity with safety standards are issued following a type examination by an accredited body pursuant to standard EN/ISO 17025.

- French accredited bodies :

- Laboratoire National de Métrologie et d'Essais (LNE) – <http://www.lne.fr/>
- Centre Technique Industriel de la Fonderie (CTIF) – <http://www.ctif.com/>

➤ MARKET SURVEILLANCE AUTHORITIES

- Ministry for the Economy and Finance :

- DGCCRF – Bureau des produits industriels 5A – bureau-5a@dgccrf.finances.gouv.fr
- DGDDI (Customs) – Bureau D2 – dg-d2@douane.finances.gouv.fr